

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF TEHAMA

In Re:

COMMUNITY SERVICE / CONVERSION OF FEES AND FINES

STANDING ORDER 2015-06

Pursuant to Penal Code Sections 1209.5 (. . . the term total fine means the base fine and all assessments, penalties, and additional moneys to be paid by the defendant), 1205.3 (. . . in place of the payment of all fines and restitution fines on a proportional basis) or other applicable statute, a fine may be converted to community service hours at a rate of $100.00 per day.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 10.603(d), the Tehama Superior Court clerks are delegated authority to convert fines to community service in the following manner;

1. FELONY/MISDEMEANORS
 - a. If a fine or fee is owed and probation has since expired or terminated, the clerk may do a one-time conversion of the balance to community service upon request.
 - b. If a fine or fee is owed and probation was never imposed, the clerk may do a one-time conversion of the balance to community service upon request.
2. INFRACTIONS
 - a. If a fine or fee is owed on an adjudicated case, the clerk may do a one-time conversion of the total or balance to community service upon request.

Restitution ordered pursuant to Penal Code Sections 1202.4, 1202.44 and 1202.45 shall not be converted to community service hours by the clerk.

This standing order shall expire on December 31, 2015.
